

INTERNATIONAL ENERGETIC HEALING ASSOCIATION

CODE OF ETHICS

1. Members need to exemplify the International Energetic Healing Association's vision, which is:

“The IEHA is the Respected Voice of Energetic Healing Worldwide.

Our goal is to Nurture, Enrich and Inspire all Beings to live Empowered Lives.” ©

2. Members need to actively work to create harmony and friendly cooperation supporting the IEHA's vision, participate in activities and continue to further their own growth, understanding and education.

3. Members must hold the highest ideals of professional and ethical standards with clients and students.

4. Members must:

- ✓ Treat clients and students with respect. Never engage in illegal or immoral activity with students or clients.
- ✓ Work towards empowering their clients, and students, in their own healing process by enabling them to bring forth their own awareness of the body, mind, soul connection, therefore, embracing their part in the healing process.
- ✓ Remember to practice 'Self Care'. Keep your energy healthy and clear; Be the light and find your awareness for others to follow.
- ✓ Give a verbal or written explanation of what is involved in the session, class or workshop.
- ✓ Ensure that the client is aware that we are not medical professionals, and they should always refer medical questions to their Primary Medical Professional.

5. Members who have not practised in accordance with this Code of Ethics and/or the Code of Practice must voluntarily surrender and return their membership certificate upon request by IEHA.

6. Members must display a copy of the Code of Ethics in their place of practice where it can be visually seen by clients unless they have a mobile practice.

7. Membership of the IEHA is conditional upon acceptance of this Code of Ethics.
